

Service dependency diagram

How to read it

Each arrow points from a service to a service it calls. notification-service was added in September 2026 to send alert emails to agent owners.

The diagram is generated from the service catalogue every night, so it shows the calls each service is configured to make, not live traffic. Services with no configured calls appear without arrows.

